Inspiring Children To Work,
Towards Their Dreams Social Community & Welfare Activities

LDH's social contribution activities were initiated under the idea that "certain social contributions can be made only through entertainment". The theme "Dreams For Children" shows children the happiness of having dreams and aims to support them in realization of their dreams. Centering upon Social Contribution Department, LDH staff, artists and talents work together to provide various support and places to get an actual experience for children who will be forging the future in order to make at least a little contribution to their growth on the way to their dreams. Everyone in LDH is committed to social contribution activities.
